

Consolidating Apostrophes

1. Complete the table below.

Full form	Contraction had not she is they will you have

VF

4. Which of these sentences needs an apostrophe for possession?

- A. Where is Katies coat?
- B. Where does James sit?
- C. My brothers are older than me.

Explain your answer.

R

2. Add apostrophes to the appropriate words in the sentences below.

- A. Hes wearing his smart shirt.
- B. Finish your drink, please.
- C. Do you know where youre sitting?
- D. This is where were eating.

VF

5. Tristan has written the sentences below.

- A. The flowers were beautiful.
- B. What's for lunch?
- C. Were all wearing pink.
- D. Ava's hat is black.

Is he correct? Convince me.

R

3. Tick the sentence that has the same meaning as the one below.

Ella does not have a red pen.

A. Ella doesn't have a red pen. ☐

B. Ella's pens are red. ☐

VF

6. Use the word cards to create 3 contractions. Write each one in a sentence.

where

had not

is who has

A

Consolidating Apostrophes

1. hadn't; she's; they'll; you've
2. A. He's; C. you're; D. we're
3. A
4. In sentence A, 'Katie's' needs an apostrophe to show possession. The coat belongs to Katie.
5. No, sentence C needs an apostrophe in the word 'we're'. This is a contraction of the words 'we' and 'are'.
6. Various answers, for example: This isn't my ball. Emily hasn't completed her homework. Who's paying for the food?